VANTA · AW CAMPAIGN DEVELOPMENT

THE BRIEF

Turn an AW collection into a reason to belong.

BRAND

VANTA

An invented brand name for Berlin women's apparel combining structure with drape.

BUSINESS TASK

Create desire before product education then convert attention into collection discovery.

The purchase is not just a coat. It is a more certain version of the self.

For some early-career fashion consumers, purchasing a coat may represent a more certain version of the self. Clothing may help them navigate transitions between roles for example, student to professional, private to public, or familiar to unfamiliar.

HYPOTHESISED TENSION

“I am still becoming:
but I want to dress like
I have already arrived.”

Campaign implication

First sell the emotion of the transition, then show the product in the process of transition.

The culturally fluid city woman

WHO

23–32 · urban · design-aware
Early-career or creative professional

WANTS

A distinctive identity without loud status symbols

HESITATES

“Is it wearable enough?”
“Is the quality worth it?”

NEEDS TO SEE

World that you aspire to + action + proof

CAMPAIGN PLATFORM

AFTER DARK

BETWEEN IDENTITIES

At dusk, nothing is fixed.
Neither is she.

The transition from daytime to nighttime is a metaphor for taking that step into the person you are becoming.

One transition. Three creative rules.

01 ——— THRESHOLDS

She is caught in doorways, corridors, and reflections between states.

02 ——— STRUCTURE × FLUIDITY

Tailoring represents control; draping represents movement. They are both represented in the collection.

03 ——— PROOF IN MOTION

Walking, turning and closing the coat reveal fit and fabric—not static posing.

VISUAL DIRECTION

Cool control. Warm becoming.

LIGHT

Blue-hour ambient

WINTER

5 · CTA

Caption opens with the identity tension; product names and fabric proof sit after the emotional hook.

Participation makes the identity idea personal.

Signal collected: poll response → retarget with the matching product angle (identity vs fit).

A voice that is calm, direct and unfinished.

MASTER LINE

Dress for the self you are stepping into.

REEL HOOK

Who are you after dark?

CAROUSEL OPEN

You are not one identity. Dress for all of them.

PRODUCT PROOF

Structure in wool. Movement in satin. Made for the hours that change you.

CTA

Step into Autumn / Winter.

Build tension → reveal meaning → prove product → convert.

TEASE

D-4 to D-2

Crop details · dusk clips · identity poll

Goal: curiosity

REVEAL

D-1 to D0

Manifesto teaser · hero
Reel · key visual

Goal: reach + saves

PROVE

D+1 to D+4

Carousel · fit motion · fabric Stories

Goal: consideration

CONVERT

D+5 to D+6

Styling edit · creator
reposts · urgency CTA

Goal: collection visits

Paid support: boost the hero Reel only after organic saves/completion confirm the strongest hook.

Every asset has a job and a signal.

01	ATTENTION	3-sec view rate	Does the identity hook prevent the scrolling?
02	INTEREST	Saves + carousel completion	Does the world feel worth returning to?
03	DESIRE	Product taps + fit-video views	Does visual desire turn into product curiosity?
04	ACTION	Collection visits + add-to-bag	Does the sequence convert?

PORTFOLIO TAKEAWAY · Strategy materializes via one single mechanism: from analysis to implementation to evaluation.

The collection gives the campaign something real to prove.

01

THE THRESHOLD COAT

Midnight navy wool · architectural shoulder ·
longline protection

02

THE HOUR DRESS

Oxblood satin · asymmetric drape · fluid movement

03

THE PASSAGE SUIT

Charcoal wool · softened tailoring · slate-blue satin layer

Creative principle: every appearance involves a contrast between a strong outer structure and a flexible inner identity.

One idea, multiple compositions.

The launch behaves like one connected journey.

WHY THIS ORDER

Feelings attract attention. Consistency attracts memory. Proof eliminates hesitations. The call-to-action comes when you're done with desire.

What I created and how I approached it.

ROLE

Campaign Strategist &
Creative Concept Developer

SELF-INITIATED SPECULATIVE PROJECT · 2025
REFINED FOR PORTFOLIO · 2026

01	STRATEGY	Consumer hypothesis · audience lens · campaign objective
02	CREATIVE	Big idea · visual rules · art direction · copy system
03	CONTENT	Reel storyboard · carousel · Stories · channel journey
04	LAUNCH	10-day sequence · KPIs · decision logic

TOOLS / METHODS

Consumer-hypothesis framing · Campaign architecture · AI-assisted visualisation · PowerPoint layout and presentation design

The strategy came first. AI visualised the direction.

01 · DEFINE

I crafted the fictional brand brief, a strategic hypothesis about the audience, and the campaign objective.

02 · DIRECT

I set the dusk setting, threshold motif, palette, styling, lighting and composition rules.

03 · VISUALISE

I interpreted the art direction into prompts and chose the most coherent output.

04 · SYSTEMISE

I developed the concept into content that fits different channels, copy, launch date, and key performance indicators.

DISCLOSURE

VANTA is a fictional brand. Campaign photography is an AI-generated concept illustration based on my art direction prompt and does not constitute any commission work.

FINAL TAKEAWAY

A campaign is not a collection of posts.

It is one idea moving consistently from a consumer hypothesis to creative execution to commercial action.
